

“To What Extent Can Long-Term Investment in Infrastructure Reduce Inequality?”

1:15 p.m. – 2:45 p.m., Monday 22 May, 2017
UN Delegates Dining Room #1-3

On the occasion of the second Economic and Social Council Forum on Financing for Development follow-up, including the Special high-level meeting of the Council with the Bretton Woods institutions, the World Trade Organization and the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development, welcomes you to a luncheon discussion, hosted by the seventy-second President of ECOSOC, His Excellency, Frederick Musiiwa Makamure Shava, Permanent Representative of the Republic of Zimbabwe to the United Nations, and sponsored by the Friedrich-Ebert-Stiftung New York Office.

Special guests, Mr. Michael Shank, Director of Communications for the Sustainable Development Solutions Network and Banque de France economist Mr. Patrick A. Pintus will provide keynote remarks.

For more information, please contact Friedrich-Ebert-Stiftung
Senior Policy Analyst Sara Burke sburke@fesny.org